SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY SPRING ISSUE

1900 1960

1919

Mary A. SKINNER Boyd (Mrs. Skinner Boyd) — 505 E. 82nd St., New York 28, N. Y.

Elinora REYNOLDS Quigley and Martha WEARE Bodine ('20) were delegates to the Diocesan Convention in Richmond last October and according to all reports had a wonderful time. Elinora talked to Sarah POWERS Trapnell on the phone but was kept so busy at the convention she had no time to visit with Sarah.

I enjoyed the fall Council Meeting, the Alumnae Meeting and luncheon in October at the Hotel Barclay in Philadelphia. It was an unexpected pleasure to find Florence KOCH Beaumont "among those present" and to hear about her married daughter and flock of grandchildren. My daughter has deserted the Radio-T.V. field for publishing and is now at Duell, Sloan and Pearce as an editorial assistant and very happy there.

1922

Ruth CHANNON Bard (Mrs. Roy E.) — 526 Greenwood Ave., Kenilworth, Ill.

1923

Nina MARSHALL Ball (Mrs. Jonothan)—381 Shirley Drive, Birmingham, Mich.

1925

Katherine DOORLY Clark (Mrs. W. Dale), 405 S. Elmwood Rd., Omaha 32, Nebr.

Margaret PARKIN Winters: "Son, Rex Parkin Winters, graduated from Princeton in June and daughter, Mary Rex Winters, is a junior at Smith. I hope to see fellow N.C.S. Alumnae in Philadelphia at the luncheon. My husband, a physician, will be there at the meeting of the American College of Physicians of which he is a member."

Mary VERNON Mish writes: "I am now President of The General Adam Stephen House Manor Association at Martinsburg, W. Va. Revolutionary General Stephen founded Martinsburg and my hope is to restore his home as I have Jonathan Hager's."

Charlotte PRADT Smith says: "Son Stephen will graduate from Stanford this year and go in the service. Howard, too, hopes to finish his college this year. We enjoy Florida every winter and Green Bay, Wisconsin, in the summer."

Katharine HUSTON: "Mildred and I inherited an 18 year old boy in March and it has been quite an experience for us. Our next door neighbor died last Easter Sunday and Rowland asked that we be appointed his guardians so we have had him since then. He is in his second year at Dartmouth and intends to be a doctor. He is a very nice boy and Mildred and I have enjoyed him, but it is certainly a responsibility to have one that age, especially when we know nothing about boys! He has taken everything in his stride, however, spends his vacations with us and it is almost as bad as having a debutante dauughter."

Katherine DOORLY Clark: "We have had a very eventful year as grandparents. Daphne, one of my twins, gave us a new baby granddaughter in July, and Diane, the other twin, produced Kristin in December. Susan, my youngest, was married in August to a Cornell medical student, Kipp Charlton, and they live in New York."

Katrina STURGES Harris writes: "My three daughters are all married and my son is engaged. John's parish has more than tripled in ten years, so he has his hands full. I try to keep up my end of things."
